

LACHARITÉ MCCOMBER KUCZYNSKI CONFIRMED AS SOLE MONTREAL REPRESENTATIVE IN CROSS-CANADA ACCOUNTANTS ASSOCIATION

APRIL 30, 2016, Montreal — Lacharité McComber Kuczynski (LMKCA) today announced that the Montreal firm has been accepted as the newest member of BHD, an association of independent mid-sized accounting and consulting firms with representation in major cities across Canada.

As the sole Montreal member firm of BHD, LMKCA strongly enhances its ability to deliver assistance, referrals and specialized knowledge to clients with national or international business needs.

Membership in BHD association brings unique advantages to clients of Montreal accounting firm.

“This new strategic alliance enables us to offer our clients national and international reach. If we have clients or contacts at LMKCA who need to refer work to another jurisdiction then we are in a position to manage that,” said Thomas McComber CPA, CA and co-managing partner of the firm. “Our clients will also directly benefit from the relationships and resources that are exchanged between member firms of BHD at conferences.”

Similarly, LMKCA will provide other BHD members access to its in-depth knowledge of the Montreal market, as well as its expertise in technology and service businesses and cloud-based bookkeeping services.

“Our growth has been very rapid over the past five years and it is directly linked to the quality of our professionals and the achievements of our clients,” said Genevieve Choinière-Lacharité CPA, CA and co-managing partner of the firm. “Through our association with BHD we will bring even more talent and specialized structure to our clients. By sharing best practices amongst a group of well-established firms, we are more well-rounded advisors.”

Accounting and consulting clients of all BHD member firms not only have access to the services of professionals in 13 Canadian cities, but they can benefit from international expertise as well. They are able to operate across borders with the assurance that their local partner is in control of their international business requirements in taxation, audit and consultancy via BHD’s membership in the International Association of Practising Accountants (IAPA).

“BHD is very excited to have LMKCA join as our Montreal representative,” said John Campbell, CPA, CA, CFP and president of the association. “Geneviève, Thomas and Rafal are energetic, vibrant professionals who have grown a strong firm. We look forward to sharing knowledge and ideas with them in the future. It will enhance the association and help us more broadly service our clients’ needs.”
